Newspapers.com by Ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/274650554

Downloaded on May 30, 2020

Sell-Perk High To Graduate 79 On Wednesday

Many Events Planned; Plan Summer School After Classes End

Seventy-nine students will be graduated from Sellersville-Perkasie High school at the commencement program in the school auditorium at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

School sessions will continue for all except the seniors, until June 23. Teachers will be finished with their work June 16 after which a summer school will be held for the first time in Sell-Perk High.

At the commencement program Wednesday, Earl Paul will deliver an address on "Americanism in the High School," written by Rita Smith. This will be followed by a talk on "Some University Education" by R. Ish Deardeff Owen, professor of educational administration at Temple university.

Salutatory oration on "The Way of the Sword," written by Harold Fly, will be presented by Carrie Godshall. Lewis N. Snyder, principal of the Sellersville and Perkasie school district, will speak on behalf of the school board. Dr. John School, board president, will present the diplomas.

The annual baccalaureate sermon to the graduates will be delivered tonight at the 7 o'clock assembly by the Rev. Jay C. Scholl, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Perkasie. The Trinity choir will be in charge of the singing.

To conclude the school year a number of activities of student activities will be open to the public this week. These began Thursday with a fashion show and two playlets. One of the productions entitled "The Alibi and Print Shop" gave the visitors an opportunity to see how the girls are clothing along. The other play was called "Dad's Night In" or "What Every Woman Knows."

Furniture modeled after authentic colonial pieces, modern pieces of the circuits, market clocks and many other creations by young members of the manual training classes are to be on display in the shop and at the art exhibit Friday night.

Ellis Burchell, supervisor of art, will arrange the grouping of paintings, drawings and cartoons by grade and high school pupils. Robert E. Brown, head of the shop department, is arranging the show of furniture, which includes a maple bedroom set, a maple twin bed, three full size desks of different designs, empire chairs, cedar chests, metal work, wrought iron, upholstered chairs, silhouette weather vanes, archery tackle, skis and sled and boats.

Members of the graduating class are as follows:

Academic: Virginia Wimmer, Rita Baker, Lester Rodenhoff, Paul Schmoll, Robert Lutz, Rita Smith, Earl Paul, John School, Earl Paul, Elaine Moyer, Mary Meyers, Claudia Kirpatrick, Margaret Harr, Caroline Harkness, Carroll Godshall, Robert Frett, Kenward Day, Jeanette Clair, Harold Casper, Ruth Beach, Anna Boesch, Dr. Elaine Seidler, Virginia Appelbach.

Commercial: Dorothy Barndt, Robert Barnes, Ruth Beach, Anna Boesch, Frances Burkhardt, Ralph Fluck, Harold Casper, Carroll Godshall, Robert Graff, Theodore Graff, Eliot Heckman, Miriam Heckman, Ethel Hunsberger, Kathryn Landis, Lillian Margargal, Jeanette Maurer, Betty Meyers, Mary Meyers, Ruth Moyer.

General: Valerie Peters, Adela Plasecka, Mary Schaia, Robert Scheirla, Doris Self, Pauline Shank, Richard Shelly, Elmer Shultz, Miriam Smith, William Stader, Dorothy Strasser, Carl Treiber, Beth Wall, Richard Wall, Robert Weber, Norman Schauer, Betty Walters, Oscar Wall, David Oliman, Claire Musselman, Ruth Moyer, Lizzie Moyer, Harold William Forrest Miller, Mary Loewen, Dorothy Lutz, Ruth Lutz, Ruth Lutz, Mary Modern, Joseph Hart, Marion Grimer, Walter Godshall, Beatrice Glassmyer, Abbie Freed, Mrs. Carter, William Conrad, William Alderfer, Marion West.

MINOR ACCIDENTS SEND FOUR BETHLEHEMITES TO ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

Kenneth Meisell, 22, of 426 5th Ave., Bethlehem, was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital at 9:30 p. m. Saturday for an abscess in the right ear. He was treated at the Clinic Theatre. Meisell suffered undetermined injuries when he fell from a ladder.

Earl Heckbrenner, 4, of 41 Cleveland St., Bethlehem, suffered a possible fracture of the left foot when struck by a machine owned and operated by Joseph Unger, of 1231 Michigan St., Bethlehem. The accident happened at 5:30 p. m. Saturday. The child was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital.

Fred Wolfe, 22, of 247 E. Garrison St., Bethlehem, suffered lacerations of the head and face when a motor he was operating crashed into a service pole at Emmaville. He was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital at 5:45 p. m., Saturday.

Braden Paulin, 5, of 302 N. Main St., Bethlehem, was treated in the dispensary at St. Luke's Hospital at 11:30 p. m., Saturday for lacerations of the tongue. He was injured when he was struck by a swing on the Moravian College grounds.

Bethlehem Personals

Richard Carey, Bridgeport, Conn., is spending a few weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. John Lindemuth, 324 19th Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Kidner, Thomas Kidner, Miss Elizabeth Kidner, Mr. and Mrs. John Kidner, 847 E. North St.

John Blantzer, 841 Broadway, is celebrating his birthday anniversary today.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Green, 1945 Cherokee St., are visiting friends in Hightown over the weekend.

David Barnes, Greenwich St.; Bert Shaver, Wood St., and Roy Ostberoth are spending today fishing at Little Gilmore.

Mrs. Roy Ostberoth, Linden St., is ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grimmer, Allentown, visited by son Mrs. Ben. Stoll, Wood St., Saturday.

Mrs. Edwin Crossman, 512 Elm St., is ill at her home.

Nancy Hintz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarion Klotz was graduated Friday night from the Mt. St. Peter's Lutheran church, Lansford.

Thomas Keasling, 31, 761 Wyandotte St., suffered lacerations of fingers when he cut himself on a steel bar while at work. He was treated and discharged in the dispensary at St. Luke's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trump, Butztown, became the parents of a son born at St. Luke's hospital, Friday night.

79 Tomorrow

SAMUEL W. SHERRY

When samuel W. Sherry of 538 N. Center St., Bethlehem, celebrates his 79th birthday anniversary tomorrow, he will look back on almost a lifetime of service as a railroader in the employ of the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

The esteemed Bethlehem resident, who for most of his years as a railroader was a trainman on passenger service, retired from service days three years ago. Since that time he has been enjoying his retirement meeting old friends and talking, not only about the past, but about the present and the future. He is one of the oldest residents of the Bethlehem Lehigh Valley club of Bethlehem and spends a few hours there almost every day.

Born in Hackleberne, near Mauch Chunk, Mr. Sherry entered the employ of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Mauch Chunk. When the famed Black Diamond was in service he was a member of the fire crew. After many years of work on that train he became a trainman on the Pittsburgh Express.

Following his retirement with him is his wife, the former Rosa A. Aranall, whom he married 54 years ago. The couple have four sons, Roy D. Sherry, of the Call-Chronicle newspapers; Lester Sherry, of Bethlehem; Ira, of Lehigh Valley Railroad, Rolf S. Sherry, of the engineering department of the Bethlehem Steel Co., and Kenneth Sherry, of the Bethlehem Globe Times.

Lehigh Alumni Hold Reunions At Bethlehem

Alumni activities leading up to the opening of the 71st commencement exercises of Lehigh university were climaxed Saturday night with banquets by all the reunion classes.

Commencement activities will get under way at 10:30 a. m. today when the university will conclude its department of moral and religious philosophy at the university, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in Packer Memorial church, Lehigh campus.

The reunion banquet of the class of '89, celebrating their 50th reunion, was held at the home of Archibald Johnston. The wives of the alumni were guests of the class at a buffet luncheon at her home.

Other class reunions and the place they were held follow: '94, Bethlehem club; '96, Hotel Bethlehem; '99, home of Eugene Grammes; '01, Hotel Bethlehem; '04, Bethlehem club; '06, Hotel Bethlehem; '07, Bethlehem Waldheim; '24 and '25, Bethlehem club; '34, Sun Inn, and '39, Beethoven Mannerchor.

Following the general alumni meeting in the morning and a luncheon in the Alumni memorial hall, the football game of the Class of '89 were defeated.

Following the alumni parade, led by Caleb Kenney, '10, the alumni enjoyed a wrestling match in Taylor gymnasium, since the athletic field was unfit for use and alumni baseball teams was rained out.

TALL CEDARS HONOR NATIONAL OFFICER

National Director Harry L. Dillinger of Bethlehem, accompanied by the executive of Junior Deputy Tall Cedar of the Supreme Forest of the United States, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, was tendered a reception Saturday night in the Masonic temple, Allentown, by Tall Cedar club, 556 Main St.

Members of the order from all forests of District No. 1 were invited to those located in Easton, Allentown, Bethlehem, Newton, N. J., Mauch Bridge, and Stroudsburg attended to hear the national officer speak. Dinner was served at the annual banquet sessions held in Atlantic City on May 25.

District Representative Monroe Hess of Wanamie, Luzerne, Pres. No. 74, Wilkes-Barre, N.J., headed a delegation from that place.

The pleasant embonsolic of the Junior Deputy Tall Cedar was officially presented to Mr Dillinger, by Grand Tall Cedar Earl E. Schaffer, of Tall Cedar club, Allentown.

Dancing, a floor show and a buffet luncheon were the main diversions of the program that followed the presentation.

Bride

MRS. ROBERT P. FOX

Of Bethlehem, who before her recent marriage, was Naomi E. Hillinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hillinger, 827 Delaware St., Bethlehem. Mr. Fox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry L. Fox, West Point. Vs. They were married in the Grace Lutheran church by the Rev. J. Howard

Award Prizes As St. Ursula Graduates 34

Fountain Hill School Holds Commencement; Pupils Win Honors

Paul Erdle and Patricia Tabaney were presented with American Legion awards in recognition of the high qualities of courage, honor, service, leadership and scholarship by the Fountain Hill American Legion Post 551, at a program with film and national commencement exercises of the St. Ursula's Parochial school, Fountain Hill on Saturday morning.

The commencement exercises were opened by the celebration of a mass by the pastor of the St. Ursula's church, Rev. Joseph J. McPeak at 8 a. m. Father McPeak also delivered a short sermon on the attitude of life of the pupils who were graduated.

Diplomas were then awarded to 34 members of the class as follows: Boys: Joseph Pethley, Carmen Fiungar, Francis Shields, Richard Pichola, Paul Erdle, Robert Hoffman, Donald Drake, Edward Deegan, John Finnegan, Donald Wagner, Thomas Reber, Paul Erdle and Robert Beck.

The girls were: Dorothy Andrasko, Mary Ann Bilotta, Dorothy Bilotta, Ruth Marie Peters, Theresa Lirosi, Doris Hocker, Loretto O'Hearn, Elen McGoldrick, Pauline Reinhold, Sally Dougherty, Helen Ward, Rose Mary Shields, Dolores Ann Hocker, Jean Dunning, Theresa Ball, Margaret Mc-Donald, Mary Ann Bilotta, Dorothy Theresa, Rose Ettinger and Mary Redding.

In an examination in religion which was given by Father McPeak, Albert Beck, Dorothy Andrasko, Mary Ann McGoldrick, Paul Erdle, Francis Shields, Doris Hocker, Loretto O'Hearn, Vincent Lirosi, Ruth Agnes Ann Peters, Mary Ann Bilotta.

Religious medals were awarded to the following for having a perfect average in religion for the entire year: Senior grade: Dorothy Andrasko, Ella Beck, Mary Trimble, Rita Cola; Sixth grade: Suzanne Deegan, Fifth grade: George Wimer; Fourth grade, Kathleen O'Connell; Third grade: Lorraine Lengfelder, Robert Davenport, and Mary Becker; Second grade: Ann Marie Bilotta, Dorothy Patricia Hulling, Joan Chalupa, Elizabeth Dever, Rita Fagan, Joan Koch, and Virginia Tabaron.

Gold medals for excellent scholarship and for completing the Eighth grade with the highest averages were awarded to the following: Senior grade: Dorothy Andrasko, honorable mention, Albert Drudge, John Flanagan, Pauline Tabaney and Dorothy Andrasko.

Prizes were awarded to the following in the Junior Academy: Eighth grade: Dorothy Andrasko, Seventh grade: Mary Ann Bilotta, Sixth grade: Dorothy Schmidlin; Honorable mention: Louis Erdle, Catherine Reibman; Fifth grade: Ann Marie Bilotta, Mary Ann Bilotta, Fourth grade: Theresa Ball, Third grade: Robert Davenport, Second grade: