

THE ALLENTOWN MORNING CALL

ALLENTOWN, PA., MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, 1906.

TWO CENTS

VOL. XXXIII, NO. 121.

CHILD LIFE UP IN FACTORY SMOKE

EGYPT SCHOOL-TEACHER ABANDONS THE PRACTICE. TOTS FEEL GREAT GRIEF

Healthier Diet, for Many Causes of Little Children in Great Manufacturing and Mining Areas—Succession to Nerve Injury.

"Child life going up in factory smoke" is a phrase that has become a household word in the industrial districts of Pennsylvania. It is a phrase that has become a household word in the industrial districts of Pennsylvania. It is a phrase that has become a household word in the industrial districts of Pennsylvania.

The smoke that rises from the chimneys of the great manufacturing plants and the mines of the coal fields is not only a nuisance to the people who live in the vicinity, but it is also a danger to the health of the children who play in the streets.

The smoke that rises from the chimneys of the great manufacturing plants and the mines of the coal fields is not only a nuisance to the people who live in the vicinity, but it is also a danger to the health of the children who play in the streets.

The smoke that rises from the chimneys of the great manufacturing plants and the mines of the coal fields is not only a nuisance to the people who live in the vicinity, but it is also a danger to the health of the children who play in the streets.

The smoke that rises from the chimneys of the great manufacturing plants and the mines of the coal fields is not only a nuisance to the people who live in the vicinity, but it is also a danger to the health of the children who play in the streets.

OWEN FATZINGER PASSED AWAY

PROMINENT RESIDENT OF GATA SAUQUA SUFFERER STRUCK.

NEURALGIA OF THE HEART

One of the Iron-Through-Furnace Businessmen and Bankers Succumbed to Heart Trouble—Eventful Week Was Marked.

Owen P. Fatzinger, one of the most prominent residents of Gata Sauqua, Pa., died at his home in that town on Sunday morning, Nov. 18, 1906, at the age of 54 years.

Mr. Fatzinger was a native of Pennsylvania and had lived in Gata Sauqua for many years. He was a successful businessman and banker.

He was a member of the Iron-Through-Furnace Association and had been active in its affairs for many years.

He was a devoted family man and was loved by all who knew him.

He was a member of the Iron-Through-Furnace Association and had been active in its affairs for many years.

WILKINSON WANTS HIM

Police Capture Man With Six Ties and Large Dependent Family.

Charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city, the man was arrested by the police.

The man was found with six ties and a large dependent family. He was charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city.

The man was found with six ties and a large dependent family. He was charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city.

The man was found with six ties and a large dependent family. He was charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city.

The man was found with six ties and a large dependent family. He was charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city.

The man was found with six ties and a large dependent family. He was charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city.

The man was found with six ties and a large dependent family. He was charged with having been connected with the murder of a woman in the city.

RABBI TOOK A BRIDE.

Rev. Parsony Weds Miss Reiss

In a simple ceremony at the home of the bride, the Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride. The Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride. The Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride. The Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride. The Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride. The Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride. The Rev. Parsony officiated at the wedding of Miss Reiss.

CITY'S OLDEST CITIZEN DEAD

LEVI BUCHMAN DIED OF APLECTIC STROKE.

AN ORIGINAL FRONTIER.

Numerous Descendants, to be Seen From Old Home—Pair of Men Found Dead in Bed—Many Kids Kept.

Levi Buchman, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Allentown, died on Sunday morning, Nov. 18, 1906, at the age of 82 years.

Mr. Buchman was a native of Pennsylvania and had lived in Allentown for many years. He was a successful businessman and banker.

He was a member of the Iron-Through-Furnace Association and had been active in its affairs for many years.

He was a devoted family man and was loved by all who knew him.

He was a member of the Iron-Through-Furnace Association and had been active in its affairs for many years.

STABBED OVER HEART.

Angered Italian Uses Soliflex on Brooklyn Youth.

During the night of Sunday, Nov. 18, 1906, a young man was stabbed in the heart by another young man.

The victim was taken to the hospital and died on Monday morning, Nov. 19, 1906.

The man who did the stabbing was arrested by the police and is now in custody.

The man who did the stabbing was arrested by the police and is now in custody.

The man who did the stabbing was arrested by the police and is now in custody.

The man who did the stabbing was arrested by the police and is now in custody.

The man who did the stabbing was arrested by the police and is now in custody.

POINTS ON THE MESSAGE

ROOSEVELT WILL STRONGLY ADVISE INHERITANCE TAX.

TO DISCUSS DIVORCE BILL

Correctly Reported Another Subject to Be Taken Up by the Chief Executive—Campaign Contributions to Be Discussed in December.

Washington, Nov. 18.—President Roosevelt will have strong advice to consider the merits of the inheritance tax law. The attorney general, who will be present at the meeting, will tend to prevent the passage of any bill dealing with the tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

POINTS ON THE MESSAGE

ROOSEVELT WILL STRONGLY ADVISE INHERITANCE TAX.

TO DISCUSS DIVORCE BILL

Correctly Reported Another Subject to Be Taken Up by the Chief Executive—Campaign Contributions to Be Discussed in December.

Washington, Nov. 18.—President Roosevelt will have strong advice to consider the merits of the inheritance tax law. The attorney general, who will be present at the meeting, will tend to prevent the passage of any bill dealing with the tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

The president has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax. He has been very much interested in the subject of inheritance tax.

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.