Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/275084076

Downloaded on May 30, 2020

SIXTEEN SUNDAY CALL-CHRONICLE, ALLENTOWN, PA., JUNE 21, 1942 SECOND

Bethlehem Man Killed Instantly At Center Valley

Mathew Kramm Dies, Four Injured, When Truck, Sedan Collide

Mathew M. Kramm, 34, of 1516 N. New St., Bethlehem, died instantly as the result of a collision of a truck and sedan yesterday at Center Valley. The accident, in which four other persons were injured, occurred at 2:15 p. m. at the intersection of route 309 and 309.

An autopsy performed by Dr. J. J. Wenner at the Willard L. Grove funeral home revealed that the fatality was the result of a compound fracture of the skull and a lacerated brain. Kramm was a passenger in the rear seat of an automobile operated by Donald J. McCandless, 21, Nazareth.

Following the crash the truck involved, driven by Ernest Millman, 39, Hellertown Ave., Quakertown, burst into flames. Millman, as well as Ira S. Hellerman, Ave., Quakertown, a passenger in the truck, suffered first degree burns of the arms, face and legs. He is a patient at Quakertown hospital.

McCandless suffered a possible fracture of the skull, a cerebral concussion and deep lacerations of the right and left cheeks and scalp. He is a patient at Quakertown hospital and his condition is considered serious.

Kramm's wife is confined to Quakertown hospital with a fractured ankle and shock. Also confined to Quakertown hospital is Gertrude Hauser, 40, 695 Carlton Ave., Bethlehem, with a possible fracture of the right leg.

State Motor police connected with the Quakertown sub-station investigated the accident. Millman's truck was reported south on R. 309, and the McCandless sedan was proceeding north on R. 312 at the time of the mishap. The truck was damaged to the extent of $600, while damage to the sedan was estimated at $400. Kramm was crushed in the rear seat of the car.

Dr. W. J. Loveright Jr., Center Valley, a deputy coroner, conducted an investigation. Funeral services for Mr. Kramm, who formerly lived in Allentown, were in charge of Undertaker Alexander M. Peters, M. D. Dr. Peters ordered the autopsy. The coroner said that hold-over charges against Millman will be lifted pending the completion of his investigation.

The victim of the accident is survived by Frank Kramm, his father; Mrs. Kramm, his mother, both of Allentown; four sisters, Mrs. Paul Otto and Leon, all of Bethlehem.

The Marvin Steyers funeral home, 19 E. Broad St., Bethlehem, has charge of arrangements.

SOCIETY EDITOR OF CHICAGO TRIBUNE WEDS BETHLEHEM MAN

Mrs. India Moffett, Chicago, and Edward Hollrook Moffett, Chicago, son of Mrs. Robert Threlkeld Edwards, 120 Wall St., Bethlehem, were married Friday at the home of the bride by Rev. Harrison Ray Anderson, pastor of Fourth Presbyterian church.

The bride was attended by her daughter, India Moffett and her son, John Hollrook Moffett, was best man.

Mrs. Edwards is women's editor of the Chicago Tribune. She attended the Bethlehem schools and the University of Pennsylvania. He is in the non-theatrical moving picture business.

STAFF OF VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL HAS REGISTRATION MEETING

The staff of the Vacation Church school of Bethlehem which will be enjoyed by children of Bethlehem, Fountain Hill and Nazareth, was entertained Saturday at a registration meeting at the First Moravian church.

The school will begin Monday and continue until the students will present a public demonstration of work accomplished on Friday, July 3.

Mrs. Henry Eifert heads the faculty. Others on the faculty are Mrs. Donald Fahringer, art and handicraft; Mrs. Roy Graves music, Rev. Roy Graves and Mrs. Robert Conover.

Mrs. Robert Conover and Mrs. Charles Bielsky will have charge of the beginners department; Mrs. Edwin Weichel and Mrs. Wilson Clauss, primary department; Mrs. Charles Bielsky, intermediate department and Mrs. Roger Miller, intermediate department.

HARRY TREND NAMED STATE VICE-PRESIDENT OF C. OF C. SECRETARIES

Harry M. Trend, Bethlehem, was elected vice-president of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce Secretaries Assn. yesterday at the closing session of its two day convention at Altoona.

Other officers of the association were elected president of the association, and Walter Schenk of Uniontown was named secretary-treasurer. G. Stanley Ruth, Altoona, and E. E. Moser, Williamsport, were named new members of the board.

Rev. C. H. Moatz Ends Pastorate in Northampton

REV. C. H. MOATZ

Rev. C. H. Moatz, pastor of Grace Evangelical and Reformed church, Northampton, preached his final sermon to that congregation during Communion services at 10 a. m. today. His theme for the occasion is "Farewell Thought."

Rev. Moatz recently resigned the pastorate of Grace congregation in order to accept a call from Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, Allentown. He will there succeed Rev. J. J. Benscher, who resigned in January because of ill health.

Rev. Moatz served Grace congregation during the past five years, having been installed there June 6, 1937. While at Grace, an extensive program of improvements was inaugurated and carried out fully.

In 1937, the 40th anniversary of the church was celebrated by a week of services and the publication of an historical booklet. A vacation church school of Christian education was organized and opened. The parsonage was painted.

In 1938 extensive repairs to the nine room parsonage were made. A new flag was presented to the church by the class of 1938, the church lawn was landscaped and planted and shrubbery and trees were planted at the parsonage.

In 1939 the church was furnished with a new hymnal, pulpit Bible, stole as well as being painted in the exterior. New hymnals for the Sunday school were purchased and the class of 1939 furnished the edition binders for the hymnals. The parsonage was reconditioned.

In 1940 thermostatic heat control was installed and church interior and furnishings were refinished and repainted. New pulpit lights were purchased for the parsonage.

In 1941 the benevolent budget was supported 150 per cent for the first time in 21 years.

The junior choir was formed through the efforts of the classes of 1940 and 1941. Seventy-five were confirmed, 70 members took in 82 new members, performed 61 baptisms, 39 weddings and officiated at 41 funerals.

Rev. Moatz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Moatz, 804 Walnut St., Allentown and was ordained into the ministry of the Evangelical and Reformed denomination in Zion church, Kutztown, June 12, 1932. He was the 11th son of 11th generation to enter the ministry in the 175 years of its history.

Since his ordination Rev. Moatz has served as pastor of Grace Union Mission and as student pastor of Camp Mensch Mill. He was formerly secretary of the Lehigh Valley Reformed Ministerial Assn. and is a member of the Northampton Community Council.

Rev. Moatz is married to the former Elsbeth A. Weaver of Macungie. They are the parents of one daughter, Joanna Moatz, 29 months old.

Blessed Virgin Church Marks Anniversary

Northampton Parish Was Organized Just 20 Years Ago Friday

Members of Church of the Blessed Virgin, Northampton, today join in celebrating their 20th year as a parish. They were officially organized June 19, 1922 by Rev. Andrew J. Pelesky, their first pastor, now at St. Cyrillus and Methodius church, Bethlehem.

Prior to this, in 1921, mass was celebrated in a barn on the site now being used as a mission chapel by St. Andrew's church, North Catasauqua.

In 1922 the basement of the present church in which services were held, was completed. The old rectory, now used as a convent, was completed and occupied in 1923.

The superstructure containing the church proper and Blessed Virgin school quarters comprising four large rooms modernly designed was completed and dedicated in December, 1929.

Rev. Michael P. Begany, the present pastor, then curate in St. Cyrillus and Methodius church, Bethlehem, was appointed to succeed Pelesky as pastor the following May 1, 1933.

Rev. Begany was graduated from Charles Borromeo seminary, Overbrook and Catholic university, Washington, D. C.

Since the Blessed Virgin parochial school was formed Venerable Mother Superior, M. Methodia, of the Venerable Sisters of St. Francis, Pittsburgh, headed the staffs of five sisters who taught there.

During the last three years of the school's existence, a total of 422 pupils have been enrolled in the eight grades, saying Northampton borough school district approximately $110,640.

With every arrival, the rectory was turned over to the sisters. A new rectory was begun and dedicated December 17, 1939. Also at this time the congregation was enjoying with an indebtedness of $5,000. Joseph P. Kohler, Rev. Sacho has been acting Rev. Begany since that time executing for three months, beginning with March of this year, when he was temporarily assigned to St. Joseph's parish, Pittsville.

Two special services, solemn mass at 10:30 a.m. today and a congressional dinner tonight will celebrate the occasion.

ROY WALTERS, NAZARETH, 'MISSING IN ACTION' IN CENTRAL PACIFIC

Mr. and Mrs. David Walters, Nazareth, R. 3, received word from the War Department that their son, Roy, 25-year-old aerial photographer in the U. S. Army Air Corps, had been missing in action in the Central Pacific area since the June 14 period.

Young Walters, who enlisted in the Army July 1, 1941, received his basic training at Langley Field, Va., and was sent to Richard Field, Hawaii, at the outbreak of the war. He had been stationed in California for a short time.

He attended Nazareth High school and was employed at a hosiery mill in Bangor prior to enlisting.

MEMBERS OF SAFETY PATROLS OF BETHLEHEM SCHOOLS GET AWARDS

Safety patrol members of Lafayette, Lincoln, Marvine, Nitschmann and Washington, have received medals and certificates from the Lehigh Valley Motor club. Following awards were:

Lafayette—medal, Richard Mohr; certificates, Robert Bachman, Jack Kessinger, Charles Wolfe, Daniel D'Amico, John Gotthardt, Anthony Carroll, George Gruyn, Dale Dreher, Raymond Beckage.

Lincoln—medal, James Heil, Richard Price, Willard Henry, Franklin Thacker, Robert Beaver, Gerald Hartman, Robert Danner and Donald Moskwitz.

Jefferson—medal, Delbert Rehrauer; certificates, Ralph Fortney, Harry Rivera, Ralph Portney, Harry Ludwick, Warner Edelman, Robert Pennington, Leo Kreidler, Charles Morris, Frank Palinkas, Stanley Kuzmicz, Joseph Mihalko, Stanley Chrone, Theodore Kuzmicz, Joseph Hotak and Marion Young.

Marvine—medal, Edward Danish, Jack Sheridan and Herbert Snyder.

June Stages Middle-of-month Comeback to Retain Prestige As Month of Cupid Capers

The traditional wedding month of June is living up to its reputation with an increasing number of couples plighting their troth in the Bethlehem-Easton area. A list of the weddings follows:

Bauer-Blankevitch

Margaret A. Blankevitch, daughter of Mrs. Anna Blankevitch, Lafayette Apts., Bethlehem, and Merrin C. Bauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bauer, 626 Ontario St., Bethlehem, were married Saturday in the rectory of St. Michael church by Rev. E. E. Hillmer.

The bride was attended by Frances Blankevitch, maid of honor, Mrs. Arlin Adams, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph Bauer, sister-in-law of the groom. The bride, were bridesmaids. Walter Blankevitch was best man. Robert Blankevitch and Russell Bauer were ushers.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother where the couple will reside.

Miller-Stahl

Ruth May Stahl, daughter of Mrs. Irene M. Stahl, 15 E. Garrison St., Bethlehem, and Wilbur David Miller, son of Mrs. Ella Miller, 1127 Calypso Ave., Bethlehem, were married Saturday in Emmanuel Evangelical Congregational church by Rev. J. A. Smith assisted by Rev. R. H. Miller, pastor of Grace Reformed church.

The bride was attended by Jean Frantz, maid of honor, and Irene Parmiander and Marion Weaver, bridesmaids. Flower girls were twin sisters of the bride, Jean and Nancy Stahl.

Charles Miller, Essex, Md., was best man. Stanley Miller and John Stahl were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. The couple will reside at 1127 Calypso Ave., after July 1.

Mrs. Miller was graduated from Liberty High school and Mr. Miller is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co.

Seal-Freeman

Arlene Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Freeman, 302 Miller St., Bethlehem, and Robert F. Seal, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Seal, 114 S. 6th St., Bethlehem, were married Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. A. C. Rehrauer, pastor of St. John's Evangelical church, Pittsville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Delbert Messinger, matron of honor. William Freeman, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception was held at the Colonial hotel, Bangor, after which the couple left on a trip through the Southern states.

They will reside at 104 Demouth Ave., Bethlehem. The bride-to-be is employed as assistant coordinator for Trades and Industrial education.

Bennett-Green

Claire A. Green, daughter of Mrs. Arthur H. Green, 512 N. New St., Bethlehem, and Edwin E. Bennett, 62 W. Broad St., son of Harold Bennett, 101 Wyandotte St., Bethlehem, were married Saturday at the First Lutheran church, Reading, by Rev. George P. Koehler, formerly of Bethlehem.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ralph Bauer, matron of honor and Edwin Bennett, brother of the bridegroom served as best man.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the Temple Inn, Temple, Pa. The bride is a graduate of Liberty High school and Muhlenberg college. She is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co.

The bridegroom is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co.

Wolfe-Kramer

Anna Martha Kriebaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kriebaum, 8 3rd St., Glendon, and Stanley F. Wolfe, son of Mrs. Mary Wolfe, 162 Main St., Glendon, were married Saturday afternoon in St. John's Evangelical Reformed church, Williamstown township, by Rev. Lloyd J. Snyder.

Attendants of the bride included Mrs. John Trumbauer, Easton, matron of honor, and Kenneth Harding, Allentown, and Mrs. Edgar Kale, Easton, bridesmaids. Irene Kriebaum, Glendon, junior bridesmaid and Joanne Kale, Easton, flower girl.

John Trumbauer, Easton, was best man. Ushers included Kenneth Harding, Allentown, and Edgar Kale, Glendon.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Following a trip to New York City, the couple will reside at 126 Main St., Glendon.

The bride is employed by Charles Ross, Inc., Easton, and the bridegroom by the Bethlehem Supply and Reserve Corps. Mr. Moser is employed by the Ingersoll-Rand Co., Phillipsburg.

Carr-Cooney

Helen Marie Cooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Cooney, 625 Northampton St., Easton, and Gregory Charles Carr, son of Mrs. Mary Carr, 1127 Calypso Ave., Bethlehem, were married Saturday morning in St. Bernard's Catholic church, by Rev. Edward J. Shalkam and Rev. Frederick Easterly.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Joseph Dolan, matron of honor. William Cooney, Easton, brother of the bride, was best man. Edward Cooney, brother of the bride, and Joseph Dolan were ushers.

Following a wedding breakfast at the Hotel Easton a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple will be at home at 49 S. Front St., Easton, upon their return from a trip.

Both are graduates of Easton High school. Mrs. Carr attended Moravian Seminary and College for Women and is employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Mr. Carr is a trainman on the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Winkler-Frey

Anne G. Winkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frey, 401 Williams St., Easton, and Stanley W. Winkler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Winkler, 928 W. Susquehanna St., Easton, were married Saturday morning in St. Mary's Lutheran church by Rev. Samuel Kidd.

The bride was attended by Hazel Angst, Warren Glen. Paul G. Frey was best man.

A reception was held at Morris's Acres, after which the couple left on a trip through New York state. They will be at home at 407 Fisher Ave., Hiwaman Terrace, after June 29.

The bride was graduated from high school. The bridegroom is employed by Ingersoll-Rand Co.

Horster-Hummel

Kathryne Elizabeth Hummel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence David Hummel, 2329 Hay St., Easton, and Robert Wilson Horster, son of Mrs. J. Horster, 116 N. 7th St., Easton, were married Saturday afternoon in the Good Shepherd Lutheran church, Wilson Borough, by Rev. Charles Shreiber.

The bride was attended by her sister, Evelyn G. Hummel, as maid of honor. Andrew L. Hereter, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Dr. Richard D. Hummel, brother of the bride and Andrew L. Hereter Jr., nephew of the bridegroom, served as ushers.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a trip. They will reside at 116 N. 7th St., Easton.

Mrs. Hereter was graduated from Wilson High school and West Chester State Teachers college. She is a teacher in the Wilson Borough schools.

The bridegroom is employed by Mack Printing Co. and was graduated from Easton High school.

Grube-Simon

Marguerite R. Simon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Simon, 41 N. Wright St., Easton, and Elwood Crute, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grube, 39 S. 7th St., Easton, were married Saturday afternoon in St. Mark's Evangelical and Reformed church, Easton, by Rev. Frank W. Trebe.

The bride was attended by Bertha Dornon, decorator, maid of honor. Betty Henderson, St. Petersburg, Fla., cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Winfield Robeson, was best man. Fred Grube, brother of the bridegroom, all of Easton, served as ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. They will make their home temporarily with the bride's parents.

Mrs. Grube is graduated from Wilson High school and received her nursing training at Easton hospital School of Nursing. She is supervisor of women's surgical department at the hospital.

Mr. Grube is employed by C. S. Williams and Co., and was graduated from Easton High school.

Wilson-Shevlin

Genevieve Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Shevlin, 213 S. 6th St., Easton, became the bride of Perrin M. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, 939 Lincoln Ave., Easton, Saturday morning in the nuptial mass in St. Bernard's Catholic church, Easton, by Rev. Edward J. Hickey.

The bride was attended by Margaret Keller, maid of honor, Paul Frederick was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents and the bridal party after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Following their return from Atlantic City, the couple will reside at 326 W. Berwick St., Easton.

Nolan-White

Bride A White, daughter of Thomas and the late Mrs. Mina Hall White, 344 Bevan St., Bethlehem, and Daniel A. Nolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. John Nolan, 2032 Huntington St., Bethlehem, were married at a nuptial mass Saturday in Holy Infant church, Bethlehem, by Rev. A. B. Kelly.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Paul White, wore a pouche blue suit with navy accessories and carried a shower bouquet of white gardenias and roses.

Her only attendant, Iris White, her sister, wore a jacket dress of pink with navy accessories and carried a shower bouquet of red roses.

Thomas Nolan was best man. A reception followed at the home of the bride's father after which the couple left on a trip to New York City and Atlantic City. They will live at 603 Broadway, Bethlehem.

Mrs. Nolan was graduated from Liberty High school and Lehigh University, also a graduate of that school, is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co.

Craig-Richline

Bettie Richline, daughter of Mrs. Harriet M. Richline, 2207 Lehigh St., Easton, and Ralph F. Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Craig, 1 Fulton St., Phillipsburg, were married Friday in the Memorial Evangelical Reformed church, Easton, by Rev. John F. Oerthderfer.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, George Detweiler, was attended by Marilynn Miller, maid of honor. Elinor Werkheiser and Marion Bloyer were bridesmaids.

Ralph Craig was best man. Ushers included Darrel Litsinger and Henry Werkheiser.

A reception was held at the Hotel Easton after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. They will reside at 2092 Lehigh St. after June 23.

The bride is graduated from Easton High and vice president of the Business and Professional Girls council of the association, is an active member of the Easton Y.W.C.A.

The bridegroom is employed by Ingersoll-Rand Co.

Gehr-Beam

Melba Pauline Beam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Sickilinger, 316 Ferry St., Easton, and Mrs. Grace Gehr, 118 North 8th St., Easton, were married Saturday afternoon in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Easton, by Rev. Paul Wagner.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Wilbur Beam, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor. Mrs. Alfred Miller, Easton, and Mrs. Robert Kunkle, Pullerton, were bridesmaids. Alfred Miller, Easton, was best man. Robert Beam and Walter Gehr served as ushers.

Following a reception at the church parish house, the couple left on a trip to Niagara Falls. They will reside at 18 N. 4th St., Easton.

The bride was graduated from Easton High school and was employed by the Philadelphia Electric Co. The bridegroom is graduated from Easton High school and is employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Kelly-Peacock

Gladys Peacock, 1745 St., Easton, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Peacock, 231 Chambers St., Phillipsburg, and Lester Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly, 357 Congress St., Phillipsburg, were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parsonage of St. Bernard's Catholic church, Easton, by Rev. Edward J. Shalkam and Rev. Frederick Easterly.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Jo-

Weds Air Corps Sgt.

Mrs. Walter Sutherland Mitchell

—Photo by Metzger.

Wife prior to her marriage last evening in First Presbyterian church, Allentown, was Miss Ruth Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Milton Guthrie, of Hillcrest, Phillipsburg. The bridegroom is a sergeant with the Army Air Corps. He is stationed at Daniel Field, Augusta, Ga.

Carbon County Girl to Wed N. Y. Minister

Miriam H. Batchelor Becomes Engaged To Rev. W. F. Corker

Dr. and Mrs. Roger P. Batchelor of Palmerton, announce the engagement of their daughter Miriam Helen Batchelor to the Rev. William Frederick

MIRIAM H. BATCHELOR

Corker, assistant minister at St. Barnabas Episcopal church in the City of New York.

Miss Batchelor is a graduate of Dana Hall, attended Wellesley College, and graduated from Skidmore College with the class of 1939.

The Rev. Mr. Corker is a graduate of the Western Reserve College of Hudson Theological Seminary, and did graduate work at Oberlin College. He was ordained in New York Rev. Corker is assistant to the director of St. Luke's church, Montclair, N. J. day afternoon in Wesley Methodist church, Phillipsburg, by Rev. Ralph H. Ruhl, in the parsonage of the church.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Margaret Greenhalgh, Philadelphia, aunt of the bride, and Wallace Kelly, brother of the bridegroom as best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Following a short trip through New York state, the couple will reside at 208 Hudson St., Phillipsburg. Mr. Kelly is employed by the Ingersoll-Rand Co. Mrs. Kelly is employed by H. L. Dupont Co., Parlin, N.J., and Marion at home.

Charles Hogan Northampton Co Democratic Head

Mrs. Olive Schaffer Named Vice-Chairman Of County Committee

Charles D. Hogan, Easton, solicitor of Easton and Northampton county, Saturday afternoon was unanimously elected chairman of the Northampton County Democratic committee.

A veteran Democratic leader, Mr. Hogan has served as Easton chairman in the past.

Hogan's election was made unanimous when Raymond L. Jackson, Bethlehem, a pre-meeting candidate, withdrew.

The new chairman was nominated by Assistant District Attorney Joseph Hildenberger, Bethlehem.

Mrs. Olive Schaffer, Bethlehem, was unanimously elected vice chairman of the Northampton County Democratic committee, following the election of Mr. Hogan. Mrs. Schaffer served for two years as vice chairman. Other candidates before being elected to her present post.

Russell Wood, Easton, secretary, conducted the meeting in the absence of Edward A. McCluskey, county chairman, now serving in the U. S. Army.

Joseph Yonik, Bethlehem, county detective, served as secretary of the meeting.

James L. Gallery, Easton, Democratic candidate for Assembly, announced that he would resign as Easton city chairman.

Chairman Hogan and the State Assembly and State Senate were among the speakers at the meeting.

Chairman Hogan named three members to the executive committee. They are Eric Bawyer, Bethlehem; Raymond Jackson, Bangor; and Harry Hoffman, Easton. Hogan also reappointed W. J. Young, Clerk of the Quarter Sessions, secretary of the committee.

Russell Wood, Bethlehem, was elected treasurer, and Olive Gibbs Gallagher, Easton, assistant secretary.

Hogan said that more precise votes were received in this election than in any other; 81 proxies were received, 141 were present, 19 did not answer and two resignations were received.

Easton Couple Mark Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Truthee, 1440 Northampton St., Easton, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Saturday with their family in Atlantic City.

The couple was married June 20, 1917 by Rev. Francis T. Meagher, assistant pastor at St. Bernard's Catholic church.

They are the parents of two children, Harold F., employed by E. I. Dupont Co., Parlin, N.J., and Marion at home.

Betrothed

KATHRYN M. HARTMAN

Whose engagement to Robert M. O'Brien, son of Mrs. Muriel O'Brien of Wilkes-Barre, was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hartman of 736 Broadway, Bethlehem.

Miss Hartman attended Central Catholic High school, Allentown, and Liberty High, Bethlehem. Mr. O'Brien attended Elmer L. Meyers High school and Temple, Philadelphia. both are employed at Roller-Smith Co.

WE PAY UP TO 5¢ each FOR PHONOGRAPH RECORDS
CALL 2-2125
LEHIGH INSTITUTE of MUSIC
536 Hamilton St.

Copyright © 2020 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.
Powered by Newspapers.com